

JAMIE WIRTH

CREATIVE DIRECTION • COMMUNITY • MUSIC • F&B DIRECTION, OPERATIONS AND FIT OUT

IDEAS.
CREATIVE DIRECTION.
COMMUNITY.
CONNECTION.

Former owner and operator of Drink n Dine Hotel Group, 2010-2016 (The Flinders, The Norfolk, The Carrington, The Forresters, The Abercrombie, The Oxford Tavern, Queenies, Santa Barbara and House of Crabs)

BangGang Djs, record label boss and party promoter (supporting Daft Punk, Justice, Modular, Tame Impala, Presets, MGMT tours etc)

International Worldwide hospitality consultant (Dixon, Soletel, Stoneleigh, Merivale) and returning to pubs in 2018 with The Duke of Enmore, The Old Fitzroy and The George before Covid hit him for sixty six.

Now back again in consulting mode with a new style, lessons from every mistake you can make in hospitality, a unique read on the city and a cost effective way to bring all his various crews together for venue success, riches, good times, vibes, community and connection.

Currently consulting on Sanctuary (Redfern Small Bar), Box Hill Hospitality Project, Golf Range Concept and various other projects across art, activations, branded parties for the Post-Covid landscape and turning his side hustles - Dyno Records, Hippodrome Parties, Wirth Circus TV Series & Gamma Art Collective into slow realities.

His current and unique skill set includes creative direction, fit-out works, community building, food & booze direction, music & entertainment programming, marketing advise and operational overview to bring projects together to ensure the idea is executed daily in ways that promote business success. He also has a wide pool of consultants, curators, performers, artists and trades, making him a one-stop shop for creative projects.

CREATIVE DIRECTION,
FOOD & DRINKS PROGRAM,
DESIGN & OPERATIONS
2009–2019

As creative director, owner/operator, head of food & beverage programs, fit-out designer and music programmer, Jamie conceptualised, curated and managed 12 hospitality projects with over 500 staff throughout this period.
